Support Shakespeare North Playhouse

Support our brand-new theatre in the heart of Prescot – a traditional Shakespearean era playhouse, modelled on a cockpit-in-court theatre designed by celebrated architect Inigo Jones, at the heart of a contemporary community space. Theatre, music, comedy, workshops, conversations and events will also spill out into our exhibition gallery, studio, and the Sir Ken Dodd Performance Garden.

Together with artists, audiences and communities, we tell stories inspired by Shakespeare that feel like our own. They're stories that change the way we see the world: opening doors, inviting debate, nurturing a love of learning, and bringing joy to this place – our Shakespeare North Playhouse.

By joining the Cockpit Circle supporters scheme, you will play a crucial part in our work and future, sparking joy both on and off our stages. Your support can help us to:

- make great theatre
- nurture new talent
- engage our communities
- deliver life-long learning
- help keep our ticket prices affordable for everyone

To say thank you for your support, we'll make sure you enjoy priority booking as well as getting the very best from your visits to the theatre through a range of great benefits enhancing your relationship with us. There are five levels of support:
