

Mentor Creatives Programme: Call For Mentees

Launching September 2024

Are you a Global Majority creative looking to take your career to the next level? Are you seeking guidance and support from creative industry professionals? If so, we want to hear from you.

Liverpool's Royal Court – in partnership with Shakespeare North Playhouse, Everyman & Playhouse Theatres and Curious Minds – is launching its Mentor Creatives programme to help develop and nurture Global Majority Creatives working right across the artistic sector.

We are looking for ambitious and determined individuals from within the artistic community – be they writers, directors, actors or designers – so that our mentors can help them take their careers and professional development to the next level.

You might be a newly graduated student, or perhaps you're looking for a mid-career boost. Whatever stage you are at, the most important thing to bring with you is a desire to grow as a creative.

What Mentor Creatives offers

- One-on-One Mentorship
Engage in regular, focused sessions with your mentor, receiving individualized attention and advice tailored to your specific needs.
- Goal Setting and Achievement
Work with your mentor to set realistic and attainable goals, and develop a strategic plan to achieve them.
- Skill Development
Gain new skills and knowledge through expert guidance, enhancing your competencies and making you more competitive in your field.
- Regular Networking Opportunities
Expand your professional network by connecting with other mentees, mentors and mentees who have been through the process already, opening doors to new opportunities and collaborations.
- Continuous Support
Benefit from ongoing support and encouragement, ensuring you stay motivated and on track to achieve your aspirations during and after the programme ends.

The project is supported by PH Holt Charitable Trust and Liverpool BID. Recruitment will take place throughout August and the programme will begin in September 2024 and run until July 2025. We welcome applicants from diverse communities and backgrounds.
